

Else Röhr

(1907-08-02, Magdeburg)

1934-01-01: Enforcement of Law for the "Prevention of Offspring with Hereditary Diseases" (Forced Sterilisation).

1939-08-18: Interior Ministry of the German Reich publishes a circular obliging medical professionals to kill infants with hereditary diseases

1939-Okt: Circular is extended to grown ups. Known as "Aktion T4".

1940-11-21: First transport of 25 arrives at Bernburg.

1942-08-24: about 9384 patients were murdered in Bernburg alone, as part of the "Aktion T4".

1933: Her Jewish partner fled due to Nazi rise and the couple separated.

1936-02-27: She sought help at Magdeburg-Sudenburg Hospital.

1936-10-28: Else is forcibly sterilized.

1937-04-03: She was readmitted to the state mental hospital after she was taken care off at home.

1940-11-15: Transferred to Uchtspringe State Hospital where visits by the family were denied.

1941-04-02: Transferred to Bernburg and murdered in gas chamber at arrival on the same day.